How to apply to be a Montana Professional Development Specialist (PDS)

Step 1: Sign In to your account with your email and Password
If you need assistance getting an account you may visit our Practitioner Registry User Guide.

Step 2: Begin the application process
It is a requirement to be on the Practitioner Registry to become an approved PDS.
If you are not on The Practitioner Registry, you must apply for both The Registry and to be a PDS at the same time.
If you are renewing with the Registry you will click ‘Renew my membership’ AND ‘Become a Professional Development Specialist’.

If you are current on The Registry, you may apply for just the PDS portion.

Click on Become a Professional Development Specialist (PDS)/Trainer – No fee.

The example given below is an initial Practitioner Registry and PDS application. Based on the scenarios above the wording on your application may be slightly different.

*A submission fee is required where noted in order to process your Online Application. All fees are subject to change without notice.

Step 8: Follow up
You will receive an automatically generated email as soon as you submit your application, requesting documents to complete your Practitioner Registry application and your PDS application.
You will also receive an additional email with attached documents that you will need to print off and send or fax back to our office.

Be sure to check your email for additional correspondence!
Step 9: You receive your certificate!

Once we have everything, we need to verify your requested PDS level, we will process your information, assign a PDS Level and you will receive an email telling you that you can print your certificate by going to the Reports tab in your account.

You will renew your Montana PDS level annually along with your Practitioner Registry. It will renew automatically.
